

REMARKS

Claims

The claims have been amended to more clearly define the invention to be examined and eliminate multiple dependency.

Claims 1 to 10 have been cancelled without prejudice.

Added new claims 11 to 21 are supported by the description as filed on page 1, lines 5-9 which recites: "The present invention relates to a sublingual administration method of non-steroidal anti-inflammatories substances, referred as FANS hereinafter, which allows to considerably reduce its therapeutic dose, ..."; and on page 4, lines 7-10 which recites: "During this experimentation, it unexpectedly emerged that the sublingual administration of FANS allows to remarkably reduce the therapeutic dose necessary for obtaining the desired anti-inflammatory effect.".

Further support is found in the description on pages from page 6, line 5 on, to page 8, up to line 5, and in original claims 1 to 10.

Applicant's counsel remains ready to assist the Examiner in any way to facilitate and expedite the prosecution of this application.

If any additional fees are required by this communication, please charge such fees to our Deposit Account No. 16-0820, Order No. 39070.
